130 percent increased sales in Boston

The Boston Evening American's Part in the California Bartlett Pear Campaign

President Frank T. Swett of the California Pear Growers' Association in a recent magazine article told the story of a remarkable advertising campaign on California Bartlett Pears in two eastern cities, Boston and Philadelphia.

The campaign faced unusual difficulties. Here was the situation, as outlined by Mr. Swett:

"We had difficulties to overcome; an appropriation limited to a nickel a box; markets thousands of miles away; no precedents to guide us; reduced buying power of consumers; a high freight rate; skepticism of the fruit trade; a short season; a late start and the need of fast work."

As for results, read President Swett's summary:

"Results are what count! We would have felt regret if sales had increased 50 per cent. over those of the preceding year. But we were pleasantly surprised by the striking increase of 130 per cent. in sales in Boston and 102 per cent. in Philadelphia. The advertising sold 24,000,000 additional pears in one month."

Boston American's Merchandising Service Paved Way to Success

Widespread, efficient and rapid work among the dealers was necessary to insure distribution and co-operation with the advertising.

The Boston American's merchandising service department quickly, interested the dealers of the entire Greater Boston district and enlisted whole-hearted dealer co-operation.

This preparatory work was so well done that when the advertising started—the Boston American and only one other Boston paper were used—sales soared beyond the hopes of the California Pear Growers' Association.

Afterwards, Mr. L. D. Odhner, who had charge of the campaign, wrote to the Boston American's merchandising service department the unsolicited letter reproduced on the left below, in which he said:

"I think it only fair to state that your organization must be given a large part of the credit for these splendid results."

"Besides the invaluable assistance which the American rendered us in putting us in touch with the fruit trade and in actually arousing a desire in the dealers for our advertising material and consequently for our pears, I figure that it saved us over $500.00 in cash through the co-operation it gave us in the distribution of displays and the conduct of the window display contest."

This Same Service Is Available to All Advertisers

The Boston American's merchandising service department, with ten trained field men and three monthly dealer publications, has for years maintained close personal relations with nearly 10,000 dealers in the Greater Boston district.

WONDERFUL MAN MARGOT SAYS OF HARDING

Has a Large Head, Former Premier's Wife Says,
With Lots in It

By International News Service.
Washington, Feb. 14.—Margot An-quith, wife of former President An-quith of England, called on President Harding at the White House today and pronounced him a "wonderful man."

"He has such a large head," Mrs.
Anquith said, after her half hour interview. "It's a much larger head than most folks have. And I imagine there's a lot in it."

President Harding presented the author of "Margot's Diary" with the signed reading copy of his farewell speech to the arms conference. Margot expressed herself as having been swept off her feet by the generosity and stable spirit of America's chief executive.

The vivacious British woman lecturer leaned against the wall of the executive chamber and said to chat with the newspaper men after her session with the President. She folded her arms and placed her right foot back against the wall and from this position of vantage submitted to a cross examination from Associated Press reporters.

"Your President takes straight, entirely," and to the point, she said.
"We chatted on politics, international politics mostly. We did not mention the League of Nations, and I'm glad."

"We agreed that the arms conference was a huge success, and that a new era has been entered upon in the relations between my country and the United States. We both believed that Arthur James Balfour did his most manipulative life work at the arms conference."

"And, by the way, do you know he is really a charming man? We are very fond of Mr. Balfour on the other side."

Asked if she talked about the possibility of the United States attending the Geneva conference, Mrs. Anquith replied: "I wonder?"

"It was really not for her to say who added."

"Americans are so strenuous," Margot told the reporters.

QUERY BUSINESS MEN ON SHIFT OF POSTOFFICE

Commission Sends Letters Asking Views on McDonald's Offer to Swap Sites

In an effort to ascertain the attitude of Boston business men on the plan to remove the postoffice from Postoffice square to the Back Bay, the special postal commission today sent letters through the city calling for an expression of opinion.

W. J. McDonald, postal operator, recently proposed that he exchange the land and building of the postoffice for the site of the new postoffice, which would be on the government about 250,000 square feet of land at Columbia avenue, Charleston and Berkeley streets, and considerable of the city's business district.

The proposal was investigated by the postal commission, consisting of Albert K. Smith, superintendent of mail at New York, Peter McCarty, assistant superintendent of mails at New York and E. L. McDevitt, inspector of the postal service.

The commission here is representing the postal service in its efforts to improve the postal service throughout the country, of which Senator David I. Walsh of Massachusetts is a member.

The letter outlines the proposal made by McDonald and asks the commission to advise on the fact that the plan has been approved by the commission which is committed in no way.

found, to be suffering from serious wounds and a dislocated left shoulder.

BETTY ALDEN'S COMMENT ON BOSTON SOCIETY Local Elite Enjoy Whirl of Affairs at Palm Beach

By BETTY ALDEN.

THERE is no vacation here in the whirl of festivities which make up the social life at Palm Beach. Luncheon, tea, tea-dances, dinner, dinner-dances, costume balls, surf-bathing, fishing trips, crusades and yacht cruises —all these forms of entertainment manage to keep the smart set well-occupied.

I note that several Bostonians attended the dinner and dance given at the Everglades Club last Saturday night by John Stanford and the Misses Sarah Jane and Gertrude E.
Stanford.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Bohrer, Jr. (Misses Deane) were there, as were Mr. and Mrs.
George van L. Meyer, Jr., and Charles L. Harding, all of Boston.

In the same company were Mr. and Mrs. Gurnee Mann, the son and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Charles Mann of the Massachusetts North shore and Washington, with whom they are staying at the Florida resort.

The two sprightly grandchildren of Mrs. Mann, Grace and Charles, are also in the party.
They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Amory of Boston, New York and Washington, and are the niece and nephew of the Gurnee Manns.

One of the most prominent hostesses of the Boston contingent Winter-ing at Palm Beach is Mrs.
Charles L. Harding. (Harriet Knowles) of Dothan, who is encouraged for the season at her magnificent new villa on South Ocean boulevard.

And Mrs. Harding has been so widely entertained as she herself has entertained. Last week she was in the company for whom Mrs. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte of New York gave a tea in the Coconut Grove. Mrs. Bonaparte's other guests included Mrs. Alfred Codman and Oliver Turner, both of Boston.

Charles P. Choate is another Bostonian making prominent appearances in the social activities at Palm Beach. At present Mrs. Choate has her houseguest Mrs. Carl A. de Benedict and Mrs. Mabel Choate, both of New York, for whom she has entertained extensively.

Appropos of affairs at Palm Beach, society folk asporting there are showing no end of interest in the marriage of Mrs. Louise Cromwell Brooks to Brigadier-General Douglas MacArthur of West Point, who ceremony is to be solemnized at half past four this afternoon at 201 Mil-road, the Palm Beach villa of Mrs.
Edward F. Stoughton of New York, mother of the bride.

An army chaplain will perform the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families and a few intimate friends. Mrs. Brooks' only attendant will be her step-sister, Mrs. J. Kearney Mitchell of Philadelphia. Her brother, Mr. James H. R. Cromwell of Philadelphia, will be best man. Following the ceremony a few additional friends will be invited to an informal reception.

This evening promises to be a busy one for society folk in the club. Not only will the skating contest at the Arena in aid of the Silo Memorial draw a goodly number of the smart set, but the Harvard Club concert will bring to attract a large audience at Symphony Hall.

There has been so much already said and written of the ice carnival, arranged under the chairmanship of Miss Marion Penno, that there is not much more to be said. All society, practically, has interested itself in this event in some way or another, either by serving on the committee, by taking part in the excellent program planned by the committee, or by helping to swell the imposing list of patronesses.

Following the concert at Symphony Hall and the skating contest, many members of the committee, as well as the number of tickets have been limited to 500. Others have been elected from the undergraduate committee of the Union and the senior class, and will be in charge of R. Keith Kane, vice-president of the Union.

The following names have been elected to be patronesses for the dinner:

Mrs. A. Lawrence Lowell, Mrs.
Charles Francis Adams, Mrs.
George Washington Peck, Mrs. Robert Ward, Mrs. Roger B. Merrick, Mrs. E. C. Moore, Mrs. Frederick Allen, Mrs. David M. Little, Mrs. C. N. Greenough, Mrs. G.
W. Cran, Mrs. Harold Matthews, Mrs. N. Penrose Halliwell, Mrs.
William F. Whitney, Mrs. Edward W. Trafford, Mrs. Thomas R. Watson, Mrs. Edgar Crocker, Mrs.
Matthew Lane, Edward A.
Whitney.

Random Notes of Society Folk in Town and Country

THERE will be no luncheon of the Junior League today, as Robert Kelso, the executive secretary of the Council of Social Agencies, who was to speak today, has been unexpectedly called away. There will, however, be a bridge at 3 o'clock this afternoon, after which tea will be served.

Mr. Kelso will speak to the girls at next week's luncheon. One of the most interesting features of the League's series was given last Tuesday when Dr. William Hooley spoke about the Judge Baker Foundation. At the end of his talk, Dr. Hooley answered numerous questions.

Mrs. George A. Page and Mrs.
George A. Sargent are patronesses of the Chestnut Hill assembly to be held next Friday evening at half past eight in Buckingham Hall, on Tucker street, Cambridge. The other dance of this series have been held at the Chester Hill clubhouse, but owing to the removal of the latter, Friday's dance will be held in the Cambridge hall.

Mrs. Horatio Nelson Slater of Boston, who is spending the Winter in New York, is a member of the lecture committee for the Boston Chamber of Commerce. The last of this series will take place next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Harold I. Pratt at No. 58 East Ninth street, who is opening her home for the affair. Prominent members of Gotham's smart set have arranged these lectures.

Mr. and Mrs. Alanson L. Daniels are occupying an apartment at the Albion, having returned to Boston from the South where they have been stopping for a number of weeks at Atlanta, Ga.

Edward P. Hutchins of Boston has reached Nice after a motor tour of Italy and will continue his trip through France for several weeks.

REFUSE TO SAVE LIFE OF LANDRU, SLAYER OF 11

Paris, Feb. 13. (By International hope of escaping the guillotine, to which he was condemned on November 30 for the murder of ten "flamers" and a boy, perished today when the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals threw out the French "Bluebeard" request for a new trial Counsel for Landru had appealed to President Millerand for executive clemency and to Minister of Justice Bardoux for intercession, but it was declined today that both pleas fell upon deaf ears.

Landru is expected to die on the guillotine at Versailles in the dawn of some morning next week. He has resigned himself to his fate. In his cell in the Versailles jail he maintains the calmness of a stoic. He is penitent and cannot send out for any of the luxuries that men of money could purchase, but this does worry him.

SHIPS HUNT FOR MAN ADRIFF AT SEA 7 DAYS

Swept Into Ocean During Terrific Storm, He Couldn't Be Rescued

By Associated Press
New York, Feb. 14.—A score of ships of all kinds were leaving their usual routes today on a mission of search.

They continued to search for John Birkner, twenty-four years old, the sailor who was cast adrift in a small boat from the steamship Gaffney last Wednesday, 100 miles from shore in an unfrequented part of the Atlantic.
His seven-day drift is still afloat.

If Birkner's frail craft is still afloat,
his seven-day drift is still afloat.
Birkner was warmly clothed when accident sent him on his lonely adventure and his boat was well stocked with food.

Birkner was one of four sailors ordered to launch a lifeboat in a terrific storm, when a wave heeled the Gaf-ney over. The lifeboat was swept in to the sea, and Birkner with it. He climbed into the boat.

For sixteen hours the Gaffney tried to get close enough to put a line aboard.

The high sea frustrated each attempt.

CALLS MEETING STOP THEFT OF 200 BARRELS OF WHISKEY TO COLLINS

Big A. I. R. I. R. Convention Is to Follow Cablegram From Leader in Ireland

By International News Service.
Washington, Feb. 14.—Angered by the "Don't Torpedo Us" message of Michael Collins, Irish minister of finance, the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic retorted today by issuing a call for a great national convention of De Valera sympathizers.

Plans for the second annual convention of the organization were under way when Collins' warning to the committee against American recognition of the Irish Republic was received. The announcement of the calling of the convention was made today "as a fitting answer to Michael Collins," it was declared by Thomas W. Lyons, national secretary of the organization. The convention will be held here April 21 and 22.

Five thousand five hundred representatives of the organization will be invited to attend, equal to the number attending the first convention in Chicago.

A delegate representing the Republican Party in Ireland will attend. Hot resentment was freely expressed to local Irish Republican quarters here today over the cable from Collins addressed to the organization asking that the body refrain from its efforts to gather funds for the Republican cause and that it cease its propaganda in America in its efforts to secure American recognition of De Valera's faction.

The organization has been in conflict with Collins since he was declared, in an effort to determine what the provisional government intended to do with the funds raised for the Republican cause in America. Collins replied that such funds would be used only for "dual purposes" included.

Lyons replied asking what the term "dual purposes" included.

"Michael Collins has not authority to admonish Irish Republican sympathizers in this country as to how they may or may not act."

Fresh From Paris—Latest Word From Marie Suzanne

NAVY blue tulle, superbly tailored, is an invaluable fashioner of Spring. One tailleur of this sort and in this material is straight little models which return each year in spite of the mode and stay on because none of the couturiers can design anything smarter or more appropriate for those early days.

It is possible to be very enthusiastic about a sport costume of tulle or white silk jersey, because it is so unlike other sports costumes the season has inspired. This deep bloused chemise gown is made decorative by white silk fringe that trims the sides of the skirt and finishes the collar. Then there are odd long hem-stitched skirts on skirt and sleeves, and a white and silver metal belt.

TWO BACK BAY APARTMENTS LOOTED

Thieves Got $500 in Valuables on Huntington Avenue and Newberry Street

Thieves "blundered" their way into two apartments in the Back Bay, ransacked both places and made their escape with jewelry valued at about $500.

The first place entered was the apartment of Lawrence Jordan at No. 407 Huntington avenue. After taking a lady's gold watch, a bracelet, a pin, a butterfly pin, a fountain pen, a stick pin and a pocket chain, the couple left.

Shortly afterwards, the door of the apartment at No. 438 Newberry street, entered by Milton Paulino, was forced. The haul in this place consisted of a gold mouth bag, a string of pearls and a pocketbook containing $100.

When the occupants of the apartments returned home they found furniture overturned and contents of the floor.

MAN DESIGNS BERLIN WOMEN'S SMART HATS

BACK TO NORMALCY! The catapaths of the country say girls will remain backward unless they exercise properly. Here are three Cincinnati acrobats in the catapath's beautiful back contest. They offer the award in an effort to stimulate careful living. (Underwood)

MISS GEORGIA HOPLEY, the only woman prohibition commissioner in the country, likes a hard job and is eager to suppress the illegal traffic in liquor. She is attached to Internal Revenue S. D. O., Washington.

ALBERT B. FALL, Secretary of the Interior and a close personal friend of President Harding, who is, according to reports, ready to resign. It is said that he is not in accord with the President's stand on the duty of the house and farm bills. (Int.)

PERFECTLY LOVELY! Most girls who prance about the stage for a living are known as the "most perfect" girl physically. But this young lady, Peggy Ellis by name, has the support of experts (not her publicity experts), for the title. She's a New York actress. The bionic pose is charming. (International)

DOGGING ALONG! The owner of these two bull pups, a New York man, has taught them innumerable tricks. The funniest is their characterization of village cobbler. (Gilliams)

"ROLETTE" IS LEGAL! The popularity of "rolling their eyes" among the girls led an ingenious Chicago man to create a stocking already rolled. Miss Marie Courtes is first Chicago girl to wear them. (Underwood)

BLEACHED CORAL! This pure blooded Hawaiian girl, one of the few remaining members of a dying race, has won a beauty contest in Honolulu. (Int.)

YOU'D BE SURPRISED! This Spring has, as smart as any that has come from Paris thus far, was created by a man and a German professor at that. Professor Haas Hoyo is the foremost millinery creator in Berlin. Weaves straw and flowers make an exquisite combination. (Wide World)

"LET'S KISS AND MAKE UP!" This new table, designed primarily for actor talk because of the walls set directly into the table to hold powder, creams, etc., is finding its way into the hands of the non-professional. It prevents one from spilling powder and creams. (Underwood)

A ONE-MAN BOAT! Here is a new design of skating sail, said to create more speed than the old type. Snapped on Lake Hopatcong, N. J. (Underwood)

IN THE SWIM! L. V. Kestrick, inventor of this sea-sinkable suit, demonstrated it the other day in the Potomac at Washington, D. C., for the Navy Department. The garment is said to be ideal for aviators.

A JOB WHERE A LOT OF SAND IS NEEDED! Egypt's sands are full of setres, which form the basis of most of our washing sodas, and this explains the popularity of the hunk of the Nile as a favorite "washbuck." These natives women are to be found here at nearly every hour of the day. They carry huge loads of washing to the shore in baskets. (Gilliams)

FAD OR FOOLISH! On the popular conception that corsets relieve poor vision, these large ones have been imagined and English folks are buying them by the score. Invented by an American.

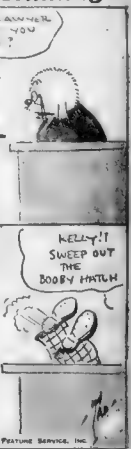

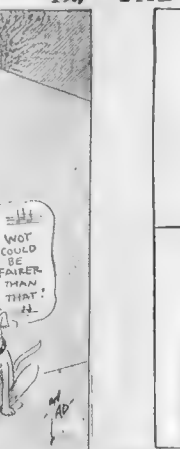

LET'S GO! Yosemite Valley has been transformed in the course of a few weeks from a garden-like vale to an old-fashioned New England valley, and the youngsters in the vicinity wasted no time in getting out their toboggans. These young "prep" schoolboys, most of whom never saw snow before, seem to enjoy the experience. The oldest inhabitants of the region declare the ground is covered with the heaviest snowfall they have ever seen. (Int.)

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE THIS TRY IN YOUR HOME? What's that? You know which one we mean. It's called a "sere bus" and was one of the most popular toys exhibited at the Toy Fair, Hotel Imperial, New York city. Has three wheels and works like a kid car. (International)

on Thursday

The new Harvard stroke will be shown Thursday at the Newell boat house on the river. The crew will be in row squads. The functions of the stroke, both forward and outboard, will be demonstrated. The actual rowing work, however, will not start until Monday afternoon. The varsity will assemble at 8:30 a. m. on Monday morning and will hear from Head Coach Henry Taylor, Captain Louis McCune, Truck Coach George W. Smith and the manager for the men, and Dr. Joseph H. H. Smith for the women. The start of the season at 4 o'clock is expected at the Newell boat house.

The varsity crew of the women will depart at the preliminary work session, run at about Saturday, and will start the regatta on Sunday.
